Farm learners to get school uniform and bicycles

About 125 farm learners from Mojalefa Farm School in Clarence will benefit from the three- tier partnership in honour of the former President Mandela.

The Free State Department of Education in partnership with Nedbank, SAN PARKS and Liberty Life will on 23 July 2013 celebrate Mandela Month at Mojalefa Farm School in Clarence.

The purpose of this event is to help with the upgrading of school facilities, giving learners school uniforms and bicycles to learners who travel long distances to school.

SAN PARKS has decided to adopt the school and will renovate and give all the necessary support the school might need.

Nedbank will provide 50 bicycles to learners who travel for more than 20 Kilometers to and from school.

The Department of Education and Liberty Life will also donate school uniforms to the learners.

The Media is invited to attend.

The details of the event are as follows:
