C.3 The request procedure

- A requester must use the form printed in the Government Gazette, which is attached hereto.
- The requester must also indicate if the request is for a copy of the record or if the requester wants to peruse the record at the offices of the Department. Alternatively, if the record is not a document it may be viewed in the requested form, if possible.
- If a person asks for access in a particular form the requester should be given access in the manner requested. Acceding to the request should not interfere unreasonably with the running of the Department, or damage the record, or infringe upon a copyright not owned by the state. If, for practical reasons access cannot be given in the required form but in an alternate manner, the fee must be calculated according to the person's first request.
- If, in addition to a written reply to their request for the record, the requester wishes to be told about the decision in any other way, e.g. by telephone, this must be indicated.
- If a requester asks for the information on behalf of somebody else, the capacity in which the request is being made should be indicated.
- If a requester is unable to read or write, or has a disability, they may make the request for the record orally. The information officer must fill in the form on behalf of the requester and give them a copy.
- Two types of fees have to be paid in terms of the Act, the request fee and the access fee.
- The deputy information officer must inform the requester by notice, requiring the requester to pay the request fee of R35 before further processing the request.
- The requester may lodge an internal appeal, if appropriate, or an application to the court against the tender or payment of the request fee.
- After the information officer has made a decision on the request the requester must be notified of such a decision in the manner requested by them and of any remedies available.
- If the request is granted then a further access fee must be paid as prescribed. The fees are attached hereto.
- The Information Officer has a period of 30 calendar days within which he/she must respond to the request.
- Under certain circumstances, the Information Officer may extend the 30-day period once only and for a further period of 30 days.
