Premier ES Magashule and provincial Executive Council to launch Operation Hlasela in Arlington

10 October 2012

Free State Premier ES Magashule and members of the Free State Executive Council will launch Operation Hlasela in Arlington on Thursday, 18 October 2012.

Operation Hlasela is a government programme aimed at fast tracking service delivery, fighting poverty and creating sustainable livelihoods within our communities through ground breaking ways.

The launch in Arlington forms part of the province's plan of continuing to unveil projects designed to eliminate unemployment and underdevelopment in the province.

Operation Hlasela is about breaking the silo-mentality that used to exist in government where departments saw themselves as independent entities.

Operation Hlasela brings together the resources of all spheres of government - national, provincial and local – in a focused manner that avoids duplication and wastage in order to bring about real and concrete change in the lives and localities of our people. This has significantly changed the way government works.

Operation Hlasela dictates that in whatever government does it must do so faster, smarter and differently.

Members of the media are cordially invited to attend the Operation Hlasela event to witness service delivery in action.

Details of the event are as follows:
