FREE STATE GOVERNMENT FOLLOWS UP ON COMMITMENT TO TRAIN AND MENTOR WOMEN IN BUSINESS

05 December 2018

The Free State Provincial Government successfully launched the 16 Days of Activism For No Violence Against Women and Children campaign, on November 23, 2018, under this year's national theme #HearMeToo, at Kaizer Sebothelo Stadium, in Botshabelo.

During the occasion, various government departments and stakeholders made commitments to assist in the development of women, in line with the 2018 sub-theme 'Women of Fortitude', which focuses on unlocking women and girls' lives, reaching for those furthest behind through strengthening both rural and urban activism.

Amongst the myriad of commitments made on the day, was a commitment to train and mentor 23 identified women in the business of fashion and haute couture. A three day training and mentoring programme, which commenced on 3 December 2018 and continued until 5 December 2018, was facilitated by Mosadi Mmehlehi Women Empowerment Programme, based in Bloemfontein.

"We shall work tirelessly to end all forms of abuse, but also ensure that women and youth are also empowered", said Premier Sisi Ntombela.
