C. ACCESS TO THE RECORDS HELD BY THE DEPARTMENT

(a) Subjects and categories of records

The subjects and categories of records held by the Department include the following:

- Minutes of meetings
- Papers delivered by the MEC and other personnel
- Workshops and seminars
- Reports
- Books
- Complaints received
- Press releases
- Policies
- Employment records
- Procurement policies
- Budgets
- Strategic plans
- MTEF submissions
- Procurement documents

(b) Request for information

(i) Automatic disclosures

The following table sets out the records that are automatically available and the manner of access available:

AVAILABLE FOR COPYING
(i) Annual reports (ii) Departmental Public Newsletters (iii) Budget vote of the MEC (iv) Business Plan	*Copies available on request from Deputy Information Officer
*Copies to be provided against payment of R0.60 per page unless it can be electronically send

(ii) The request procedures for other requests

- A requester must be given access to the record of the Department if the requester complies with the following:
  - All the procedural requirements in the Act relating to the request for access to that record and access to that record is not refused on any grounds for refusal mentioned in the Act. The Deputy Information Officer may be contacted to provide further information regarding grounds of refusal.
  - A requester must use the form printed in the Government Gazette.
- The requester must also indicate if the request is for a copy of the record or if the requester wants to peruse the record at the offices of the Deputy Information Officer.
- Alternatively, if the record is not a document it may be viewed in the requested form, if possible.
- If a person asks for access in a particular form the requester should be given access in the manner requested. Acceding to the request should not interfere unreasonably with the running of the Department, or damage the record, or infringe upon a copyright not owned by the State. If, for practical reasons access cannot be given in the required form but in an alternate manner, the fee must not be more than the fee calculated according to the person's first request.
- If, in addition to a written reply to their request for the record, the requester wishes to be told about the decision in any other way, e.g. by telephone, this must be indicated.
- If a requester asks for the information on behalf of somebody else, the capacity in which the request is being made should be indicated.
- If a requester is unable to read or write, or has a disability, they may make the request for the record orally. The Deputy Information Officer must fill in the form on behalf of the requester and give them a copy.

- Two types of fees have to be paid in terms of the Act, the request fee and the access fee. Information regarding the bank account and reference number can be obtained from the Deputy Information Officer. A requester is also made aware that the Minister has exempted certain categories of persons from paying access fees and could obtain further information regarding such exemptions from the Deputy Information Officer.
- A requester who seeks access to a record must pay the required request fee as prescribed.
- The Deputy Information Officer must inform the requester by notice, requiring the requester to pay the prescribed fee (if any) before further processing the request.
- The requester may lodge an internal appeal, if appropriate, or an application to the court against the tender or payment of the request fee.
- After the Deputy Information Officer has made a decision on the request the requester must be notified of such a decision in the manner requested by them.
- If the request is granted then a further access fee must be paid for the search, preparation, reproduction and for the time exceeding the prescribed hours of searching and preparing the record for disclosure. The fees are prescribed by legislation.
